South Korean singer-songwriter LeeHi and Chinese rapper Vava to make debut at MARQUEE Singapore this March

SINGAPORE (21 February 2024) – MARQUEE Singapore is set to welcome South Korean singer-songwriter LeeHi and Chinese singer-rapper Vava, who will both be making their debut performance at the nightclub on 16 and 30 March respectively. The two artistes will be anchoring MARQUEE’s March entertainment roster, which also boasts upcoming performances by Will Sparks, MaRLo and NERVO.

LeeHi and Vava will take the stage at MARQUEE Singapore for two mini showcases on 16 and 30 March respectively

Acclaimed singer-songwriter Lee Hi will perform at MARQUEE as part of the venue’s Oh-K! series, a South Korean artistes and DJ series that celebrates the best of Hallyu entertainment and showcases popular South Korean music acts. Launched in 2023, the series has welcomed top South Korean artistes PSY and RAIN.

Known for her soulful voice behind sentimental ballads like "Breathe" and "My Beloved", Lee shot to fame when she emerged as a runner-up on Season 1 of popular South Korean reality TV competition show K-pop Star in 2011, gaining recognition for her deep and emotional vocal delivery. The talented 30-year-old will be bringing an exceptional array of music to the fore, ranging from the captivating beats of K-Pop to the rhythmic verses of R&B. Following LeeHi’s performance, K-pop DJ Emkay will take the stage to bring a slate of the latest K-pop hits to keep the energy rolling on a high through the night.

On 30 March, Sichuan-born singer-rapper Vava will fuel the MARQUEE mainstage with her unique style of music, incorporating elements of traditional Chinese music and contemporary hip-hop. Gaining popularity since she first came on the music scene as a contestant on the first season of The Rap of China in 2017, she is best known for her rap tracks “My New Swag” and “Rap Star”. Vava is set to entertain with a suave set of fiery rap anthems as part of a 30-minute showcase at the nightclub. After Vava’s showcase, China-based DJ Sally will be hosting the official afterparty, further amping up the energy with her set of club bangers.

LeeHi and Vava are part of a star-studded line-up MARQUEE is rolling out for the month of March, joined by returning guest DJs Will Sparks, MaRLo and NERVO.

Revered as one of the top DJs in the world of electronic dance music (EDM), Australian DJ Will Sparks will be bringing his upbeat repertoire to MARQUEE on 1 March. Next in the line-up of top artists is trance DJ MaRLo, who will be showcasing his signature set of progressive trance music on 8 March. MaRLo took the EDM world by storm when he entered the scene in 2009, earning him a spot among the top 50 DJs globally.

Come 9 March, Australian twin sisters NERVO will be back by popular demand – the duo has journeyed from writing Grammy-winning hits to becoming global EDM sensations known for their dance-pop anthems, and have collaborated with industry giants like Afrojack and Armin van Buuren.

Tickets to all performances are now available on MARQUEE Singapore’s official website. For more ticketing information, please refer to the table below. Limited photo opportunity tickets are also available for fans of LeeHi to gain exclusive backstage access to meet the superstar up close.
