FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Marina Bay Sands Gives Back to Singapore with Free Live Simulcast of The Rolling Stones 14 On Fire Concert on Giant LED Screen

Singapore (February 20, 2014) Thousands more fans in Singapore will now be able to catch The Rolling Stones performance next month, thanks to a free live simulcast as part of an open-to-the-public music festival, 'Marina Bay Sands Rocks Singapore', at the Marina Bay Sands Event Plaza on 15 March 2014.

The 'Marina Bay Sands Rocks Singapore' festival is part of Sands for Singapore, the integrated resort's corporate social responsibility programme. The free simulcast of The Rolling Stones concert at the Marina Bay Sands Grand Ballroom on the Event Plaza will be projected live in high definition on a giant LED screen measuring 14 metres wide. The concert will be pumped out through a high power, high quality Meyer sound system that will be suspended eight metres off the ground, providing an incredible audio visual experience for festival-goers.

As part of this programme, Sands for Singapore is also celebrating the talents of Singapore's local legendary music scene with live music from popular local rock acts including – A-List with Douglas O., Heritage, Jive Talkin', John Molina & Krueger, and ZulTania. The Marina Bay Sands Rocks Singapore festival will start at 4:00pm. This will be followed by the live simulcast of global legends The Rolling Stones 14 On Fire concert, broadcast live from 8:00pm.

The Rolling Stones 14 On Fire concerts in Asia are presented by Prudential and Eastspring Investments.

"We take great pride in giving back to the local community in meaningful ways through Sands for Singapore. By securing this live feed of The Rolling Stones 14 On Fire, we will give all fans the chance to enjoy the best of global entertainment in a unique manner," said Mr. George Tanasijevich, President and Chief Executive Officer of Marina Bay Sands.
